Appeal in recall election denied

A special election in the City of Wayne seeking the recall of Councilman Christopher Sanders will take place May 8 following the decision of the Michigan Court of Appeals upholding the ruling of Circuit Court Judge Robert Columbo validating citizens' petitions.

The three-member Court of Appeals has rejected the arguments of both Wayne County Clerk Cathy Garrett and Sanders claiming that the judge erred in his decision to allow the petitions to stand despite the use of an outdated form by those circulating the forms.

In the briefly worded response to the lengthy appeals briefs filed on behalf of Sanders and Garrett, the court responded, "The Court orders that the motion for immediate consideration is GRANTED.

"The motion for peremptory reversal pursuant to MCR 7.21 l(C)(4) is DENIED for failure to persuade the Court of the existence of manifest error requiring reversal and warranting peremptory relief without argument or formal submission."

> This is the way democracy works. The people have exercised their rights under the law and I have exercised mine.

"Obviously, I am disappointed," Sanders said, "but since the beginning of this situation, I have said that I will stand by the final decision of the court.

"This is the way democracy works. The people have exercised their rights under the law and I have exercised mine."

Sanders also said that he still feels that under the technical interpretation of the law, the petitions should have been invalidated by the court.

"Obviously, the judges didn't agree with me, my attorneys, Cathy Garrett or the Wayne County attorneys, so now we move forward," he said.

Sanders' name, along with that of Jeremiah R. Webster, will appear on the May ballot and voters will choose which candidate will continue to represent Ward 1 in the City of Wayne. Webster, who was appointed to fill a vacant term on the city council, was the only candidate to file against Sanders for the special election.

Sanders' attorneys had argued that the recall petitions submitted to Wayne County Clerk Cathy Garrett did not comply with MCL 168 544c (1) requiring language indicating whether the circulator was a State of Michigan resident and agreeing to adhere to Michigan law if they were not. Garrett had initially disallowed the petitions based on the failure of the registered circulator, Robert Boertje of Wayne, to respond to the issues raised in the challenge.

In a correspondence to Boertje, Garrett stated, "I am without authority to issue a Call For Election due to the petition not complying with MCL 168.544 c (1)."

Boertje, represented by attorney Scott Ruark, appealed Garrett's decision and Columbo ruled in favor of the petitioners earlier this month, prompting the latest appeal. During the hearing, Columbo said that the 1,390 people who had signed

Annual charity hockey game set for March

City hall employees haven't actually seen him doing wind sprints or endurance exercises in the hallway, but many suspect that Westland Mayor William R. Wild is doing whatever necessary to get in shape to face former Red Wing players in the annual charity hockey game.

This year the game is planned for Friday, March 16 at the Mike Modano Ice Arena and Wild and his team of Wild Wings will for the ninth year face off against the Detroit Red Wings Alumni Association players.

In the past, Wild's team has been soundly defeated by the likes of Darren McCarty, Dino Cicirelli, Mickey Redmond, Larry Murphy, Peter Klima, John Ogrondnick and many other hockey greats who have played for the Red Wings. Wild's team has evolved during the past years to include city officials, employees, residents and members of the business community, who have all laced up their skates to face the former professionals on the ice.

Wild and his various teammates have generated more than $150,000 to help fund improvements at the municipal ice rink. The 'wildly' popular event always takes place before a sell-out crowd of about 800 spectators, who come to root for the home team.

This year, the doors to the arena will open at 5:30 p.m. and at 6:15 p.m. the Westland Hockey Association Mini-Mites and Mites will take to the ice to show off their skills, hopefully not embarrassing Wild's team.

Mayor William Wild shows off some of the skating skills he will use in the charity hockey game against the Red Wings Alumni Association team March 16.

The Red Wings Alumni players and the Wild Wings will drop the puck to begin their game at 7:30, following the pre-game fun.

This event is one the most anticipated events in the community and tickets sell very quickly. Adult admission is $10 and $5 for children ages 6 through 12. Those 5 and younger are admitted at no cost with an adult. Tickets can be purchased at Wild's office in city hall, 36300 Warren Road, or the Mike Modano Ice Arena, 6210 North Wildwood St., or online https://westland.ticketleap.com/hockeynightwestland/details.

Salem project concerns Plymouth officials

Don Howard
Staff Writer

Plymouth Township officials are concerned about the impact of a $10 million Michigan Economic Development Corporation (MEDC) grant awarded western neighbor Salem Township, which is about to explode with new development.

Plymouth officials are questioning the possible impact on the infrastructure, schools and public safety in the and the basis for the state funding of "urban sprawl."

> There are many uncertainties, like the potential impact to our water system capacity, and what happens to our police and fire departments and Powell Road traffic.

Last week Plymouth Township Supervisor Kurt Heise cautioned members of the Board of Trustees that they need to conduct due diligence now that plans for expansion in Salem are coming to fruition.

Livonia builder, Schostak Brothers, is set to begin construction of Salem Springs South, a retail and residential development in a 200-acre triangle of mostly vacant land bordered by M-14, Gotfredson, North Territorial and Napier roads on the northeast edge of Washtenaw County. The Schostak 588-unit high-density development will include townhouses, detached condominiums and single-family homes. To the south of M-14 will be Salem Springs North, a mixed-use development that will include retail, residential and possible big box stores. Part of the plan, according the Heise, is for the development of a so-called mini-downtown, similar to Cherry Hill Village in Canton Township.

The grant is part of an earmarked project approved by the state Legislature under HB 4323 fostered in part by Rep. Laura Cox, R-Livonia, according to Heise, who said the bill was approved last July, 19. The funds were awarded to MEDC by the

Wayne - Westland

St. Mary School will be closed in June

After nearly a century of dedication to Catholic education in the City of Wayne, St. Mary School will close at the end of this school year in September.

Parents were notified of the closing of the 94-year-old school by letters from Bishop Walter Hurley and Kathy J. Sparks, principal at the school.

In his letter, Hurley said that the school had struggled with enrollment and financial issues "that have severely impacted operations" for many years.

"The parish carries a debt of almost $5 million, much of which dates back over many years. Until recently, this debt continued to escalate," Hurley said.

"Over the years, the Archdiocese has been exceedingly generous to the school and the parish. No interest has been charged on our loan in 10 years."

Hurley noted that tuition cost at the school for this year was $4,470 or $5,200 for a student living out of the parish, while the operating costs at the school are $5,900 per student and expected to increase to $6,900 next year. He also noted that enrollment at the school is only at 122 in grades kindergarten through eighth grade and that "three grades, kindergarten, first and sixth have fewer than 10 students this year."

He also said that tuition rates do not have room to grow at the school as they are already the highest in the area.

> We must focus on the needs of our students, faculty and staff in our plans to help them transition well.

"Decisions such as these are never easy," Hurley said.

His sentiments were echoed in the letter from Sparks who said that she, too, was "deeply saddened" by the decision. "We must focus on the needs of our students, faculty and staff in our plans to help them transition well," she said.

"Despite aggressive cost-cutting measures, receiving significant grants and increasing the parish subsidy, we could not project the enrollment growth necessary to reduce the reliance on additional financial support," she said.

Sparks assured parents that administrators and staff members at the school were developing a plan to help students and parents identify and find a new school for the 2018-2019 school term. She said efforts were also being made to contact other Catholic schools to offer employment opportunities for the teachers who will be without work as a result of the decision of the Archdiocese.

"St. Mary School has a rich 94-year history of providing an outstanding Catholic education. Its closure is painful for the entire community, but especially to our current students and their families," Sparks said in her letter to families.

Distinguished Young Women program planned

The Distinguished Young Women of Wayne-Westland Scholarship Program will take place beginning at 7 p.m. Friday, March 9 at Wayne Memorial High School.

Fourteen contestants from Wayne, Westland and Inkster will compete for thousands of dollars in college scholarships and the chance to represent their community at local events and at the state finals in Canton Township in July. This scholarship program is based on academic scholastics, leadership, physical fitness and talent.

At the local program March 9, contestants will perform an opening number and compete in a performing arts talent routine, a physical fitness routine and a demonstration of self expression. Contestants are also evaluated based on academic scholastics and interview.

"This is an amazing group of smart and talented young women and we are excited to have them showcase their talents at our 51st annual scholarship program. We invite the public to come and support these accomplished young women" said Lauren Reed, Distinguished Young Women of Wayne-Westland co-director.

Competing this year are Rebecca Foster, Kiara Steward, Leah Kennedy, Michelle Ferrell, Astou Dia, Cheyenne Herren, Kayla Myles, Shamiya Carter, Fatima Herrera, Omowunmi Ayangbayi, Alana Broadnax, Jade Elder, Alanha Rudd and Nyah Phillips.

The show this year is titled "A Distinguished Celebration Featuring Literacy and Education". Gently used or new books will be collected at the show to promote literacy and education. Any book donations will deduct $2 from the regular admission price of $12. Tickets to the event can be purchased from any participant or on the night of the show. All proceeds go toward scholarship awards.

The Wayne-Westland local program is part of the Distinguished Young Women of America, which is the largest and oldest scholarship program for high school seniors in the country. Since it first began in 1958, more than $106 million in cash college scholarships have been awarded along with $1.1 billion in college grant scholarships.

The mission of Distinguished Young Women is to positively impact the lives of young women by providing a transformative experience that promotes and rewards scholarship, leadership and talent, Reed said.

Recall

the petitions would be "disenfranchised" if the petitions were rejected. He ordered Garrett to call for a recall election and to immediately begin that process.

According to Wayne City Clerk Matthew Miller, the special election will require a city budget amendment in the amount of $20,000, which he said was an estimate of the election cost. He added that he did not have a recall election on which to base an estimate of costs.

ROMULUS

Romulus Eagle player Terell Huguley, parents Tira and David Huguley and grandfather, the Rev. Arvis Alexander, Sr., were all smiles at the recent college letter signing.

Antoinette Barrow, left, her son, Quinton Barrow and his dad, Todd Barrow, enjoy the celebration of the Eagle player's signing with a college team.

Senior players sign on with college teams

Two Romulus Eagle football players signed collegiate scholarship offers on National Signing Day last week.

Running back Terrell Huguley, and left tackle Quinton Barrow helped lead the Eagles to their fourth straight Michigan High School Athletic Association playoff appearance and a Western Wayne Athletic Conference League Champion-ship. Both will play in the NCAA Division II Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC). Huguley signed with Davenport University, while Barrow signed with Grand Valley State.

Huguley rushed for more than 14-hundred yards on 144 carries and scored 12 touchdowns his senior season.

"I want to thank the entire community for supporting me over the years. It's important to stay positive and loyal, even when things aren't going your way. I'm excited for the opportunity to play at the next level", said Huguley. He plans to study business administration, which he believes will prepare him to be an entrepreneur.

Barrow is a 6-feet, 6-inch, 300-pound descendent of the great boxer Joe Louis. He dominated the line of scrimmage his senior season with more than 50 pancake blocks, and even scored a rushing touchdown.

"I'm so thankful for the Romulus coaches who prepared me for the challenges of life. I'd like to especially thank my offensive line coaches who helped me develop my technique and discipline towards the game", said Barrow. Barrow will study business management and looks forward to college life.

Romulus Eagles Head Coach Thom Patterson described the players as high character guys on and off the field.

"It's exciting to send players to college where they'll earn a degree and become great men. I'm extremely proud of their efforts, the Romulus Eagle family wishes them the best of luck at the next level," said Patterson.

Death of infant mourned

Jonah Calvin Danci

The infant who "will be held in the hearts of his family forever," is the paternal grandson of Aurel Danci and Sheryl (Willits) Danci of Ann Arbor and the maternal grandson of Dan and Starr (Dailey) Bennett of Romulus. His death is also mourned by numerous uncles, aunts and countless family members and friends.

A private family service, at which friends will be welcome, is planned between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 24, at the Romulus Senior Center, 36525 Bibbins St., Romulus. There will be a memorial luncheon and open house.

Reports on PARC project are scheduled

Special Writer

Plans for the Plymouth Arts & Recreation Complex (PARC) are advancing, with $5-6 million of the $30 million fundraising goal reached by Feb. 16, according to PARC President Don Soenen.

"We've got a lot more in the hopper," said Soenen, noting financial commitments are subject to final approvals. A presentation about the complex, the former Central Middle School in downtown Plymouth, will be made Tuesday, Feb. 27, at the meeting of the Plymouth Township Board of Trustees.

"I'm just looking forward to hearing what they have to say," commented Plymouth Township Supervisor Kurt Heise regarding the upcoming presentation.

Soenen said that a presentation is also scheduled with the members of the Plymouth City Commission early next month.

Ellen Elliott, executive director of the Friends of the Penn Theatre in Plymouth, said she is a big supporter of plans to repurpose the former school into a community center with a performance auditorium.

"I cannot overstate the importance of this facility," said Elliott, who gave a local history presentation at the meeting of the Plymouth Noon Rotary club last Friday. "As things change, we have to think of what defines us. I just want to keep thinking about ways to bring people here."

Soenen has said the project on Main Street at Church Street, which he envisions as a campus including the Miracle League of Plymouth athletic field and the Plymouth Cultural Center, will require "modest" public tax funding.

Elliott, in her Rotary presentation, cited retail and business shifts which Soenen has also said will greatly impact the future of the Plymouth community.

"We've certainly had a lot of support so far," Soenen said of the plan for the performing arts center and renovation of the former school. "The idea is to raise as much money in private funds as we can. We're going to give it all we've got."

Previously, Soenen said the public tax funding would be "pretty minimal," less than 1 mill. He explained that private fundraising will affect the need for support through a millage.

A millage rate is assessed based on each $1,000 of assessed property value. Soenen has acknowledged that there are significant infrastructure issues at the building and noted that he and the other project leaders now have the estimated costs which can be included in discussions of the future at the PARC.

Legislature.

"We must continue to monitor this-our concern is the impact on our sewer and water," Heise said.

According to Salem Supervisor Gary Whittaker, Schostak approached former Plymouth Township Supervisor Richard Reaume "a few years ago," to cut a deal for water and sewer usage. Whittaker said he also met with Plymouth Township Supervisor Shannon Price and Director of Public Services Patrick Felrath and talked with Northville Township Supervisor Robert Nix to discuss the proposed water-sewer plans long ago.

It is not known whether Schostak will seek water directly from the Great Lakes Water Authority. According to the latest minutes of the Salem Board of Trustees meeting, plans include the developer constructing a water tower and running a sewer line to the Ypsilanti Community Utilities Authority (YCUA) sewer.

Plymouth Township Trustee Chuck Curmi and other board members spoke out after the meeting expressing their concerns, saying they felt the grant was indicative of the state funding urban sprawl.

"This is good example of why the MEDC should be eliminated-they just select winners and losers and use taxpayers' money to subsidize the winners," Curmi said.

Plymouth Township Trustee Bob Doroshwitz expressed his dismay at the Schostak grant. He questioned the impact on the school district and the additional housing being introduced directly to the township market.

"There are many uncertainties, like the potential impact to our water system capacity, and what happens to our police and fire departments and Powell Road traffic," Doroshewitz said.

"It's disappointing the public money is being used to subsidize this project."

Plymouth Township Trustee Jack Dempsey expressed his disappointment in the actions of the Legislature to his fellow board members.

"I look forward to the state giving us $10 million toward our OPEG (Other Post Employment Benefits) liability. Apparently there's money to hand out," he said.

Tipping Point presents senior comedy 'Ripcord'

How far would you go to win the bed by the window? For rival roommates at the Bristol Place Senior Living Facility, the sky's the limit. Tipping Point Theatre will present David Lindsay-Abaire's comedic play, Ripcord, from March 22 - April 22. Tickets are on sale now.

Abby has lived a solitary life in her top-floor room at Bristol Place. Her abrasive personality makes sure that every roommate assigned to her leaves within the first month, which is just the way she likes it. But Marilyn will be a tougher nut to crack. She's optimistic, happy and unaffected by Abby's attitude. Determined to gain control and win her personal space back, Abby turns up the heat by proposing a bet between the ladies that proves you're never too old to learn new tricks.

The comedy of Ripcord isn't all the show has to offer to audiences.

"As the play progresses, the characters' secrets are revealed, adding a more personal layer to the rivalry," explained director James R. Kuhl. "That is the beauty of the show. It is a script that can be hilarious and quirky, but also have a great deal of heart at the same time."

The show is sponsored by John Bebes of Plante Moran. A professional theatre, Tipping Point employs more than 90 Michigan artists each year, and receives support from patrons, donors, businesses and other organizations.

"Audiences from all over Southeast Michigan have been supporting us for 11 seasons because we consistently provide a fantastic experience. Whether it's a date, couples night or group outing, Tipping Point presents high-quality, professional performances by some of the most talented artists in the state," said Dan Ferrara, Tipping Point director of development. "The theatre draws adults of all ages into an environment where they can be immersed in entertainment for a couple hours with no distractions - something that's nearly impossible anywhere else these days."

Opening night is March 24, with preview performances Thursday, March 22 and Friday, March 23. The curtain rises at 8 p.m. Thursdays through Saturdays, with matinees at 3 p.m. on Saturday and 2 p.m. on Sunday. There is a special Wednesday matinee performance at 3 p.m. April 4. Discounted group tickets are available by contacting Tipping Point Theatre.

The theater is located at 361. E. Cady St. in Northville. Tickets are $30 - $46 for adults, $28 - $46 for senior citizens. Preview performances are $25 and include a post-show feedback session with Kuhl.

For tickets or more information, call the box office at (248) 347-0003 or visit TippingPointTheatre.com.

CANTON

Police actions honored

Julie Brown
Special Writer

Canton Public Safety Director Joshua Meier is proud of the way his team responded to a Jan. 25 bank robbery.

"I'm very much proud of them," Meier said following the Feb. 13 Board of Trustees meeting at which 57 department members were lauded. The five hostages from the Citizens Bank robbery on Canton Center Road were released safely and the suspect taken into custody after a standoff with officers.

"They did exactly what they were trained to do," Meier said. "It was a team effort."

Township Supervisor Pat Williams read a proclamation at the meeting as Public Safety personnel lined the room. The proclamation noted, "Fifty seven Public Safety personnel quickly assembled into tactical, investigative, informative and responsive positions" upon learning of the hostages and bank robbery.

Also recognized were the Western Wayne Special Operations and Crisis Negotiations Teams, Western Wayne Community Response Team, and the FBI. The hostages were held for about four and a half hours.

Meier noted some personnel who worked Jan. 25 also were working during the Feb. 13 board meeting and couldn't attend.

Rebuilding of fire station No. 2 OK'd by trustees

Julie Brown
Special Writer

Canton Township trustees approved spending $215,000 for the purchase of property located on Warren Road, home of the current Fire Station No. 2, which will be torn down and rebuilt. The current station dates to the mid-1970s.

"It's equivalent to a college frat house," Supervisor Pat Williams said after the Feb. 13 meeting and unanimous vote. "It's in tough shape."

Fire Station No. 2 is between Haggerty and Lilley roads on the north side of Warren Road.

"We're looking forward to getting to work right away," said Public Safety Director Joshua Meier. "We're outgrowing our dispatch center."

Canton Public Safety staff is working with Partners in Architecture of Mount Clemens on the location for dispatch operations.

"We're excited to see you get going," Williams said during the meeting.

Also on Feb. 13, township trustees approved on first reading a measure to add two members to the Canton Planning Commission, for a total of nine. This was to comply with changes in state law.

Trustee Anne Marie Graham-Hudak asked about the snowstorm and if Canton equipment could help to clear roads under Wayne County jurisdiction. Municipal Services Director Tim Faas cited liability issues.

"We're going to make them aware of our concern," said Williams of Wayne County and Executive Warren Evans. Williams noted the center of Canton was better plowed than its east and west regions, and noted some one-fourth of county vehicles being out of commission.

"That's moronic and we can help," Williams said of an upcoming meeting with county officials.

Williams also talked about HVA Ambulatory Services and SMART, which is federally funded. An issue has arisen with 180 days notice regarding drug testing of drivers for the 16-some smaller vehicles that assist seniors and the disabled in Canton.

Williams said after the meeting HVA finds the testing standards "redundant and onerous. The service is not going to go away," Williams emphasized.

"We always come up with a solution."

Celebrated children's entertainer performs Saturday

Brady Rymer and The Little Band That Could, who are among the premier entertainers of children and families in the country, will perform a special kid-friendly show at The Village Theater at Cherry Hill in Canton, at 2 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 24.

Together with his Little Band That Could, Rymer creates music for families across the country.

"We are delighted to bring these Grammy-nominated recording artists, who have set the gold standard for writing and performing contemporary children's music, to Canton," said Performing Arts Coordinator Joe Kvoriak. "Brady Rymer and the Little Band That Could have created a treasure trove of music for families that has a universal appeal and cuts across generations and backgrounds."

Known for his funky rock 'n' roll, family style of music, Rymer has toured and recorded with RCA roots-rock band From Good Homes for 13 years, sharing the stage with the likes of Bob Dylan, Dave Matthews and the Grateful Dead's Bob Weir, before parenthood expanded the scope of his music to include young and old alike. Since then, he's forged a career with Brady Rymer and the Little Band That Could - they "might just be the best-sounding band in children's music," according to NPR's All Things Considered - releasing eight acclaimed albums - three of them Grammy nominated - and bringing energetic, rockin' live music to kids and families across the country.

Rymer has also been involved in a compilation of songs produced by Hip Hop Public Health for First Lady Michelle Obama's Let's Move campaign. In addition, he has worked with and performed for kids with Autism, Asperger's Syndrome and related disorders, and he is a featured performer and composer for ASHA's Listen To Your Buds Campaign, a hearing health public education campaign to provide parents and children with information about safe usage of personal audio technology. Rymer also serves on the Education Board of the Long Island Music Hall of Fame, a nonprofit organization dedicated to preserving and celebrating the region's musical heritage.

Tickets for the 2 p.m. show are $15 for adults and $12 for youth and seniors. Tickets are available at www.cantonvillagetheater.org or by calling (734) 394-5300. Tickets can also be purchased at The Village Theater Box Office one hour prior to show time.
